2006 Dedication

Career Services/Cooperative Education

Every year a group of seniors graduate and enter the real world. The real world can be intimidating, even to the class who thinks they're prepared. There are many people willing to help every student at Merrimack, but when it comes to preparing seniors for the next step of their journey, Merrimack Career Services is happy to lend a helping hand. The staff of the Career Services and Cooperative Education department includes Sue Brien, Alane DeLuca, Jim Greeley, Norma Herzlinger, Beverly Hutton and Natalie Maggio. With programs such as job fairs, resume workshops, and interviewing seminars, it's easy for students to feel ready for life after Merrimack. However, Career Services' assistance involves more than their workshops. The staff helps seniors to find jobs that specifically match their skills, they continuously revise resumes in preparation for different interviews, they help students prepare for these interviews, and they even assist with finding internships and co-op opportunities. These outside-of-the-classroom opportunities provide hands-on experience in a student's field and supply students with knowledge to better prepare them when they enter their first professional position. One doesn't have to be a senior to walk into the 3rd floor Campus Center office for help; everyone is welcome to stop in and say hello and to learn about what the Office of Career Services/Cooperative Education can do for them. This year, I'm proud to announce that the 2006 Merrimackan Yearbook is dedicated to the Office of Career Services/Cooperative Education.

Thank you for everything you do!

Congratulations Career Services!

Lisa Kimball

Editor-In-Chief, 2006 Merrimackan Yearbook

President Richard Santagati

Dear Members of the Class of 2006:

Congratulations from the Merrimack College community on the completion of your degree. This challenging feat was accomplished through your pure willingness to realize the importance of education in one's life.

This journey is one that was self-propelled. You made the decision to see it through to the end and without your relentless drive, your ride could have ended with any given obstacle.

Education is a constant in our world where every day holds a new lesson. Whether you are continuing your formal education in graduate school or acquiring new knowledge on the job, rarely does a day go by when we are not offered a new thought - an opposing view - or an observance from someone else's experiences. I have high hopes that you treasure this reality; it will ultimately make you who you want to be in years to come.

You will soon discover that actually holding a college degree in your hand is but one of the many incredible milestones that will come to pass in your young and promising lives. I am very proud to know that Merrimack College will always be a part of your personal history.

Thank you for the memories - God bless and best wishes for your every success.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Santagati
President

just for our amusement

During the course of the school year the seniors took many trips, such as Foxwoods, Cheers, NYC, and the 100 Days Party. One of the fall semester senior trips was to Six Flags. The seniors enjoyed themselves as they rode the rides, played the games, ate too much food, and spent quality time with friends.

Clubs on Campus

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it is the only that that ever has."

Many students on campus are involved with co-curricular life, learning many lessons outside of the classroom as well as inside. Merrimack students spend lots of time serving others, planning events, and fundraising, making both the campus & outside community a better place to live.

Serving With Campus Ministry

To The Student Life Dream Team:

For four years you were "one big happy family". Maryellen, we wish you luck in your new endeavor at Curry College. Shawn, we congratulate you on your promotion to Dean of Students. Georgianne, we give you credit for sticking with Shawn without Maryellen as a buffer! The Merrimack Community thanks you for four great years as a team, and for the combined 38 years you have served the students of Merrimack College.

Lisa,

What a year! I don't know what I would have done without all of your help with putting this yearbook together! We were able to start over new, advertise for portraits, take photos at every feasible event, come up with a theme, proof pages and become wizards on email communication triangles! Thanks to Susan we had all the motivation we would ever need to put together a yearbook, and had a lot of laughs at the same time. I will miss your frequent office visits next year!! Best of luck in all of your future endeavors. You should be proud of everything you have accomplished at Merrimack.
